Old Business

John Hotchkiss spoke about the VNA request. He questioned last month if Middleton residents receive services that add up to the amount donated. After looking further into where the town's donation goes, it was concluded that Middleton receives more services than our donation pays for.
Helen Hirtle came to the board speaking about her concerns with no street light on Eastman Lane. She advised that the Homemakers bus has a hard time dropping off at her residence do to no street light. J. Bailey and J. Hotchkiss will look into this. Helen also wanted to voice her concerns with that the only town beach is not handicap accessible.

New Business

Kate Buzzard brought the deed for the selectmen to sign for the new piece of Conservation land that was donated to the town.
Election Coverage—J. Hotchkiss will start the day at the polls, M. Schwarz will relief J. Hotchkiss once he is back in town and J. Bailey will finish out the day.
